Hugo the Reindeer

Once upon a time Santa was taking his reindeers to a reindeer show

He was very excited so he said ho ho

There was a new reindeer and his name was Hugo

He was able to do a flying backflip in the snow

Santa tried to put on his trousers but they were too low

They wouldn't even go over his big toe

He had been drinking too much cocoa

So a new trousers Mrs. Claus had to sew

They went to the show with the sleigh in tow

When he was doing his backflip he banged into a crow

He said "woah" and "oh no"

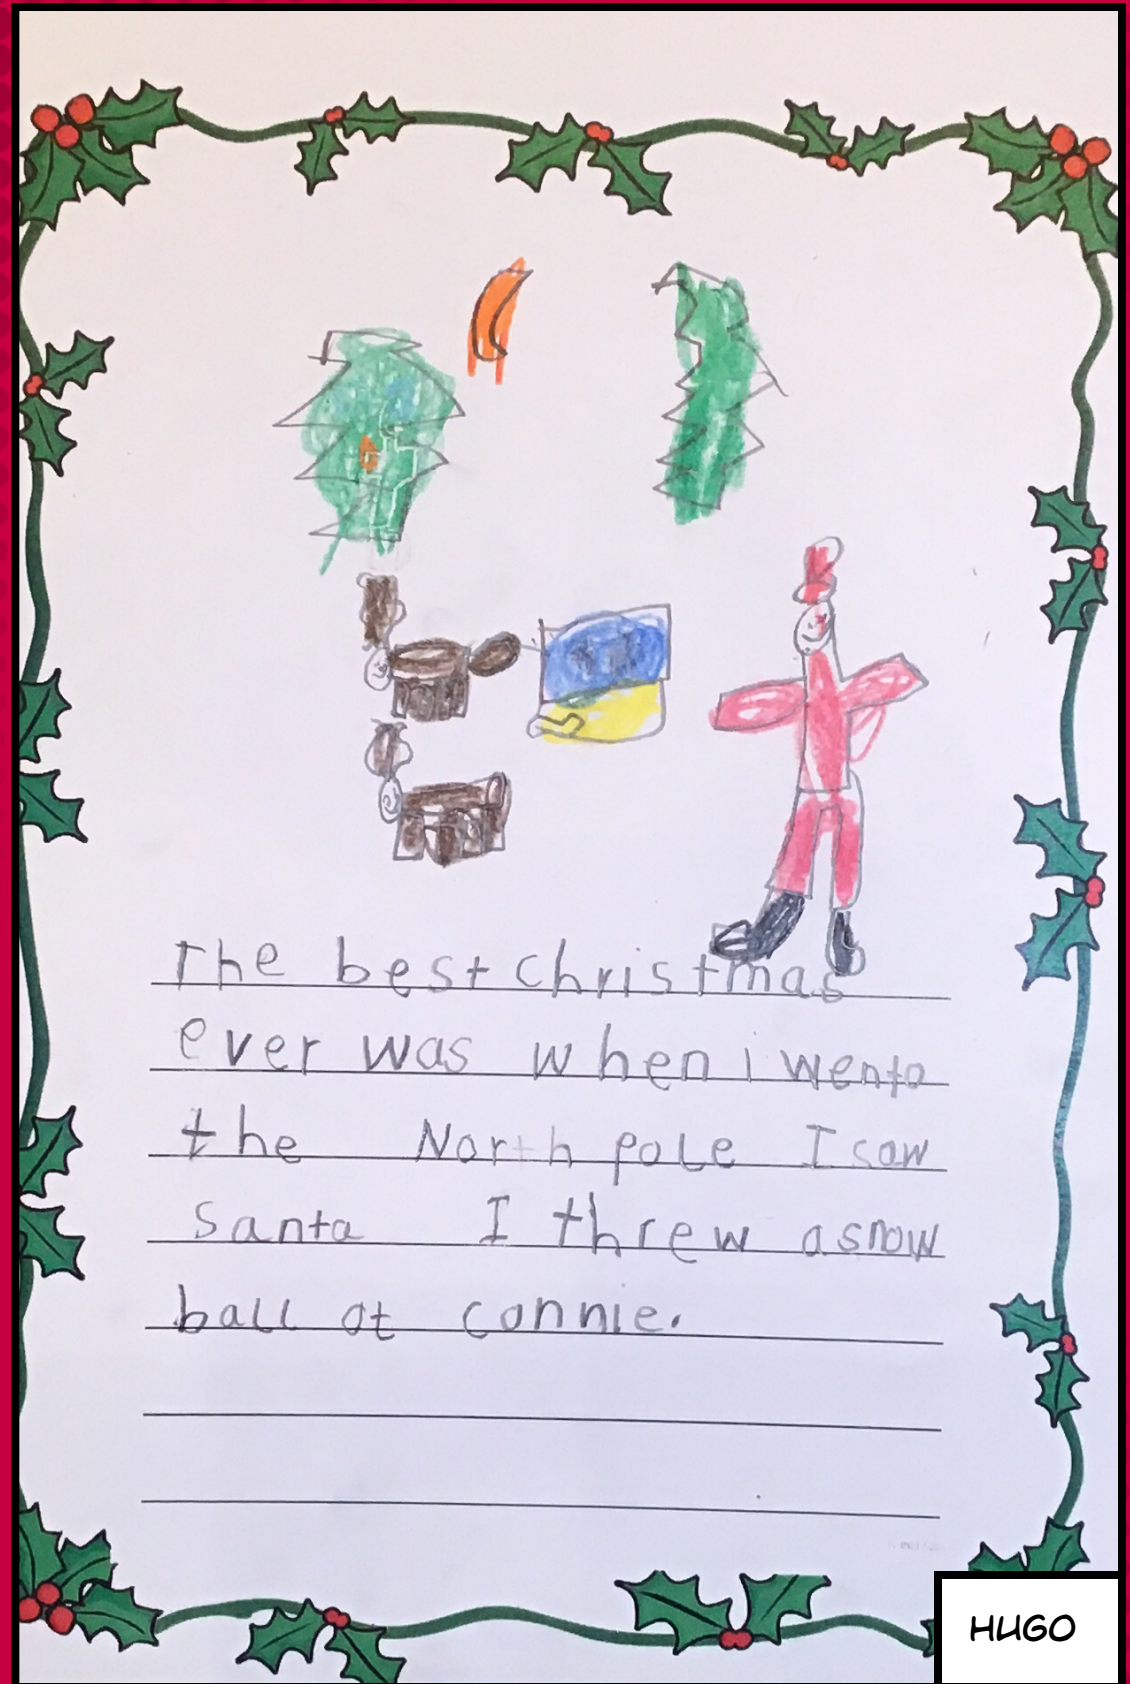

It was an awful blow

Before he tried again he put on his magic bow
